Suddenly, a Knock on the Door: Stories - Kindle edition by ...

The typical tale in Suddenly, A Knock on the Door transpires over the course of three or four pages. One of the narratives included here, "The Story, Victorious" lasts only three paragraphs, and is followed by "The Story, Victorious II," which consists of a single sentence. But Keret's tales pack a punch, despite.

Suddenly, A Knock at the Door by Etgar Keret

In his new collection of stories, Etgar Keret once again proves his endless ingenuity. In fact, these are some of the finest and most mature he has written. In "Suddenly a Knock on the Door," a man barges into the writer's house and demands that he tell him a story, because the real world is exasperating and he needs something different. The familiar humdrum and the exciting "different" reappear in many of the stories: the imagination takes over and an absurd, surreal world is created.

Suddenly, a Knock on the Door : Stories - Walmart.com ...

Keret's stories often seem fueled by some kinetic narrative germ: he lets something loose upon the world and then does his best to keep up. The stories in Suddenly, a Knock on the Door are characterized by a tone so artfully casual yet distressed it sometimes feels we are in the presence of a narrator who can hardly catch his breath. Keret's best characters chase something, and they often have no idea what it is.
